KING UNDER KNIFE

Gustave of Sweden Was Operated on To-day.

(By Times Special Cable.)
Stockholm, Sweden, April 2.—King Gustave of Sweden was operated on to-day at the Sophia Hospital here, and the surgeons found that he was suffering from extensive ulceration of the stomach.

The operation, which was superintended by Prof. John Wilhelm Berg, the celebrated Swedish surgeon, lasted two hours. It was announced afterward that the royal patient's condition was as satisfactory as could be expected, although His Majesty was

The Queen of Sweden occupied an apartment in the hospital during the operation, and will continue to reside there until His Majesty is convalescent.

Well, we might also get cheaper bread if the tax was taken off flour.

I also beg to ask if the cricket grounds were free to the public, where would the football and baseball games be held?

Are you sure that this new and improved financial system over at the city hall is better than the 1912 plan?
